Stephanie Clare-Cover is a passionate performer, musician and theatre-creator based in Melbourne. She holds a double degree in Music Performance (Voice) and Science (Physiology) from Monash University, and is a graduate of the Music Theatre short course at Victorian College of the Arts. She has performed with chamber ensembles in Italy and in theatre productions including Singing in The Rain, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang and Chess. She is also a trained pianist and proficient in a variety of dance styles, which has led to teaching voice, piano, dance and acrobatics classes for tertiary students.
